

ISLAND SEEN:

Alan Jackson in concert

PHOTOS BY JOHN HILL

The Wharf Amphitheater kicked off the 2008 Pepsi Star Concert Series with super country star Alan Jackson.

The Amphitheater was filled to the rafters as screaming fans listen to Jackson sing his many hits and also tunes from his new album "Good Times."

Besides his award winning music, Jackson's modest, down-to-earth image has made him one of the best-liked stars of his era.

For more information on what promises to be a great year for concerts at the Amphitheater, call (877) 942-7325 or check it out online at www.thewharfal.com.

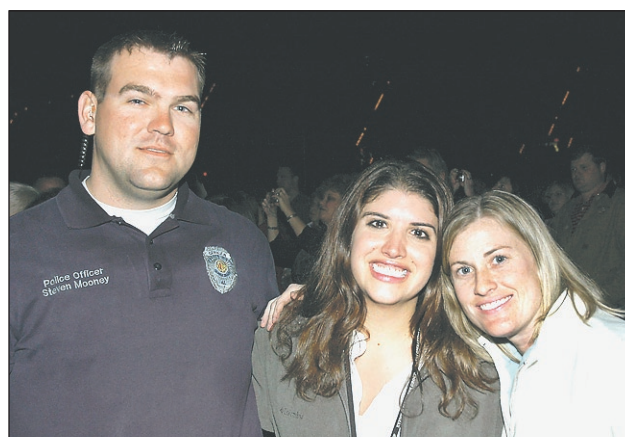

At Right: During one of his most famous songs, "Remember When," Jackson's wife and high school sweetheart Denise appears in the video behind him onstage.

Above: Fans react to the popular song "It's Five O'Clock Somewhere."

Top Right: Police officer Steven Mooney, Amphitheater Marketing Coordinator, Loni Alonso and Aileen Fountain.

Left: Kaelan McArthur and Mary Ann Washickek from Mobile, show off their new T-shirts.

Singer Alan Jackson thanks the thousands of fan who came to the concert.