A Glimpse of Things to Come: The Wharf Announces its 2008 Initial Concert Line-up

ORANGE BEACH, Ala.— The Wharf has announced the initial bookings of its 2008 Pepsi Star Concert Series. Headline performing artists include:

March 1	Alan Jackson with Jake Owens
March 2	Three Days Grace / Breaking Benjamin
March 15 (Spring Break)	Corey Smith
April 18-20	Widespread Panic
May 2	Kid Rock with Reverend Run
May 23 (Mem. Day Wknd)	ZZ Top
May 25 (Mem. Day Wknd)	Taylor Swift with Kellie Pickler
July 4 (Independence Day)	Lee Greenwood

"It seems to me the artists love playing here as they take advantage of our numerous amenities," said Linda Logan, a condominium owner at The Wharf. "I often see the artists and their bands enjoying themselves at The Oasis pool area."

"In its second full year of operation The Amphitheater at The Wharf is already considered the premier outdoor venue in the South," said Peter Bryan, General Manager of The Amphitheater at The Wharf. "We feel well positioned with our initial offerings and will soon unveil many other great events."

The Wharf continues to up the ante when it comes to the Fourth of July experience. The 2008 "Fourth at The Wharf" celebration will feature Lee Greenwood as well as the best fireworks display on the Gulf Coast.
